TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Heed the voice of the LORD. It is something very near to you, already in your hearts; you only need to carry it out (Deuteronomy 30:10-14).

Psalm — Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live (Psalm 69) or Psalm 19.

Second Reading — All things were created through and for Christ Jesus (Colossians 1:15-20).

Gospel — To be a neighbor, show love by treating others with mercy, as did the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37).

VISITING PRIEST

Next week, Fr. Joseph Adrade, SDB of Salesian Missions will be visiting our Parish as part of the Missionary Cooperation Plan. Salesian Missions collaborates with Missionaries throughout the world in providing for the material and spiritual needs of poor and abandoned individuals, especially the young. We will be having a special collection to support this cause.

BE LIKE THE SAMARITAN

The parable in today's Gospel is one of the best known of all the teachings of Jesus. The term "Good Samaritan" has been used to name various charitable organizations and is even the official name of one state's emergency roadside assistance program that helps stranded motorists. With the prevalence of the terminology used to describe various activities in our day, we might be led to forget the message of this Gospel passage. This man, this Samaritan, was the only one who offered the beaten man help. Samaritans, remember, were considered the lowest of the low in the time of Christ. A good Jewish person would not even have gone near a Samaritan for fear of being rendered impure. The Samaritan was motivated solely by the sense that the poor man needed help. He didn't care about religious or social status. And Jesus' message is that we are to do the same.

GOD IS EVERYWHERE

In everything, be it a thing sensed or a thing known, God is hidden within. — St. Bonaventure
